Jesus identifies himself as the truth. Thus, the pursuit of truth begins with and ends with truth HIMSELF—Jesus. The way this passage is written in the Greek, leaves no room for alternative truths. The article that precedes the word “truth” points to the exclusivity of truth.

The Pursuit of Truth - Reasons for Hope

Within the church, most would say that the pursuit of truth is the study of the scriptures. I have to agree, to an extent, but while truth is found in the scriptures, it is not the summation of truth. As I have written before, truth is a person, Jesus. He told his followers, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life” (John 14.6).
