Of course, turning on the oven or eating anything hot feels like lunacy in this weather, which is why it's appropriate that I have a raw book review for you today! Months ago, the lovely Amber Shea Crawley sent me a copy of her new book, Practically Raw, for review. I am so ashamed that it has taken me months to review it; the problem with me and book reviews is that I don't like posting a review until I've made, and can show off, the beautiful recipes therein.
