The Silvering Screen: Old Age and Disability in Cinema ...

The Silvering Screen maps the intersections of disability, age, film, and cultural studies and, in the process, transforms each of these interdisciplinary fields. Through close readings of popular films, Sally Chivers convincingly showcases how disability and old age are linked in our collective imagination and overviews the multiple, contested ways filmmakers have responded to that linkage.

The Silvering Screen: Old Age and Disability in Cinema ...

Popular films have always included elderly characters, but until recently, old age only played a supporting role onscreen. Now, as the Baby Boomer population hits retirement, there has been an explosion of films, including Away From Her, The Straight Story, The Barbarian...
